New York's New Pictorial Daily Newspaper Appearing for the First Time Tomorrow Morning. At All Newsstands—2c

SINCE we announced that we would pay $10,000.00 in cash for a photograph of the most beautiful girl in Greater New York or suburban districts—$2,500.00 to the second prize beauty—$1,000.00 to the third prize beauty—thousands of photographs of New York girls have been sent to us.

The first pictures of these beauties will be published in tomorrow's issue of the Illustrated Daily News—New York's new pictorial daily newspaper. Look for them. Will yours be among the first?

A New "Picture Paper"

The Illustrated Daily News will be published for the first time tomorrow morning, Thursday, June 26th. It will contain the news of the world in pictures.

It will be in tabloid form, printed on high grade paper. It will be sold on all newsstands at 2c per copy.

OUR OFFER:

1st Prize Beauty, $10,000.00
2nd Prize Beauty, 2,500.00
3rd Prize Beauty, 1,000.00

We will pay the above sums in cash, for three photographs selected by the judges appointed to decide this contest—D. W. Griffith, Harrison Fisher and George M. Cohan.

There is no charge whatever. No entry fee. Nothing to pay. Professional beauties barred.

London has two "picture papers." They are read eagerly because they present the news quickly and accurately. New York will have a similar newspaper in the Illustrated Daily News. It will be published every morning—except Sunday. Newsdealers throughout Greater New York and suburban districts will sell it at 2 cents per copy.

What the Illustrated Daily News will Contain

The Illustrated Daily News will contain the news of all the world in pictures. It will contain sport news, society news, theatrical news, fashion news, local news, foreign news. It will contain household hints, dramatic criticisms, editorials, humor.

It will present the cartoons of America's foremost cartoonists—such famous artists as John T. McCutcheon, Sidney Smith, and Carey Orr. It will be a complete newspaper for men, women and children—easy to read—presenting the world's news at a glance.

Don't Miss Tomorrow's Issue

Tomorrow's issue of the Illustrated Daily News will feature the first photographs entered in the $10,000.00 prize beauty contest. One of these may prove to be Greater New York's most beautiful girl. Your photograph or photographs of your friends may appear in the Illustrated Daily News tomorrow.

Be sure to get a copy of the Illustrated Daily News tomorrow. Inform yourself regarding this great prize beauty contest. Get acquainted with New York's newest and most unique newspaper. Any newsdealer anywhere in Greater New York will be glad to supply you. The price is 2c per copy. Watch the newsstands tomorrow morning.

How to Enter this Great Contest

To enter this contest all that is necessary is to send in a photograph—it may be yours or that of any girl friend. Any type of photograph will do. On the back write plainly the name, home address and occupation. For instance: "Helen Jones, 100 Blank Street, Stevedore, Alton, Ill." (The name and address will not be printed).

Any unmarried girl in Greater New York or suburban districts is eligible, except theatrical stars and artists' models. The judges will be D. W. Griffith, the celebrated film picture producer; Harrison Fisher, world renowned painter of beautiful girls, and George M. Cohan, the famous theatrical producer.

This entire contest is FREE. No charge whatever. Send or bring the photograph to the Prize Beauty Editor.
